

Go for it, join a ROCKET CLUB

Actually, you can be a Rocket Scientist!

You'll have more rocketry fun when you connect with a NAR club and enjoy the camaraderie! Sections hold launches, contests, conventions, and other local, regional, and national rocketry activities. Members share their tips, hints and experience with one another to make flying rockets exciting and educational. To learn more about the National Association of Rocketry, visit: www.nar.org. Your local club is listed on the reverse side of this card.
